

8. Why do you think God calls the least likely of people to be the ones He does big things through, ie, poor young virgins with carpenter husbands?

Conclusion

1. Do you often avoid embracing CHRISTmas breaking into your life and God calling you to something big because you aren't willing to recognize it, or, you don't think you are "ready" for it? How can we combat that?

Where are you Christmas? Mary and Joseph

For the Week of December 4, 2011

Review

1. What stood out for you this week from Pastor Dave's sermon?
2. In what ways are you working on bringing CHRISTMAS to your family this year?

Digging Deeper

1. Read Genesis 3:15. Why did Jesus have to be born from a virgin?
2. If Jesus's birth was not a virgin birth, what does that do with the rest of the bible?

3. Read Matthew 1:18-25. Do you think it was "easy" for Joseph to do what the angel told him to do? Why or why not?

4. Why doesn't God send you angels and dreams to tell you what you should be doing?

5. How does that challenge you to be more like Joseph in your response to the things you know God is calling you to?

6. Read Mark 1:16-20. Jesus always seems to break into our lives at "inconvenient" times. Why do you think that is?

7. Why is it hard for us to recognize when God is breaking into our lives? Why was it easy for Joseph to recognize what was going on instead of thinking it was a bad dream brought on by some late night pizza?
