1. We are obsessed in today's culture with looking young and living longer. How can that negatively shape a Christian's outlook on death?
 2. How can having a Christ centered biblical view on death positively affect the way we live our lives?
 3. Read 2 Corinthians 5:1-10. Do you feel like you "groan" to be with God and away from this life? Why or why not?
 4. In what ways can you develop a heart that groans after our real home?
 5. How can a of death be used by Satan to limit your trust in God within all of your decisions?

 7. Read John 14:1-3. How can we have confidence in Christ's promise of our future so that we are not troubled about what might happen to us?
 8. How would your walk with God change if you fully embraced the truth that all of this is temporary and you have a great promise in store for you? What big "risks" for God have you been too afraid to try?
