

Conclusion

1. This week's passage from Hebrews 5 challenges us with the statement that we should be already serving as "teachers" of the Gospel. Do you feel you are ready for that? If not, how can you get ready for that?
2. If you fail to plan, you plan to fail! How can you set a plan in place to pursue a more mature relationship with Christ this year? How can your small group encourage you on that journey?

Grace Group Homework
s.C.h.o.o.l Leave
October 16, 2011

Grace Group Homework

s.C.h.o.o.L Leave

For the Week of September October 16, 2011

Review

1. As we wrap up this series what has been the most impactful point that has jumped out at you?
 2. How are you going to be implementing this series into a practical expression in your own life?
 3. From this last week's message about "Leave", what challenged you the most in a personal way?
 4. What personal steps to pursue "leaving" have you been personally challenged by since hearing the message?
1. What are areas in your life that are most impacted by the pursuit of continual and progressive maturation?
 2. Why is the pursuit of spiritual maturity so essential to each of us as followers of Christ?
 3. What are some of the consequences that you have observed in your own life, and the lives of others, that occur when we do not grow in our maturity in Christ?
 4. 1 Peter 2:2 discusses the term "spiritual milk". What do you define as spiritual milk?
 5. What would you define as being "spiritual steak"?
 6. Read Ephesians 4:14-16. What role does the body of believers play in your growth and maturity?

Digging Deeper