

Conclusion

1. Who is an elder or pastor you can talk to about putting your gifts to work? How can you be encouraged to pursue this?
2. How would putting your spiritual gifts into practice effect your life? Your family's life? The lives of friends and co-workers?

Grace Group Homework

s.c.h.o.o.l Oblige

October 2, 2011

Grace Group Homework

s.c.h.o.o.l Oblige

For the Week of September October 2, 2011

Review

1. What has been the most impactful message during this series for you so far?(Salvation, Conversion, Herald)
 2. This past week Pastor Dave taught us about the meaning of the word oblige and the importance of the elders confirmation and encouraging of your spiritual gifts. What in this week's message was the most personally impactful?
 3. How does this message influence the outliving of your faith? Both personally and corporately in the context of the Church?
- Digging Deeper
1. Why is it important to have leaders of the church God has place you in affirm and encourage your spiritual gifts?
 2. Read Jeremiah 17:9. How is this verse an encouragement to stay rooted in a solid church family with leaders who will be gracious and honest with you?
 3. Even though you may not be an elder or pastor, how can you, AND SHOULD you, encourage others to discover and put into practice their spiritual gifts?
 4. If you have never done a spiritual gift assessment you can go to <http://www.churchgrowth.org/cgi-bin/cgi/gifts.cgi?intro=1> and take the free test! What is your spiritual gift?
 5. How can you begin to put into practice your spiritual gifts?
 6. Read 2 Timothy 1:6. Why is laying on hands such a powerful and effective way of encouraging someone to "fan into flame" their gifts?
 7. Why is church leadership so important for the church AND you?