

6. How can you use that passage to share the gospel with a friend or relative?

Conclusion

1. Who is someone that you think needs to hear about how amazing the promises of God are?
2. How can we encourage you this week to take a step of faith and share with that individual?

Grace Group Homework

s.c.h.o.o.l Obtain

October 9, 2011

Grace Group Homework

s.C.h.o.O.I Obtain

For the Week of September October 9, 2011

Review

1. Is there anything from this weeks message that stood out to that you would like to address

2. What is it we are hoping to obtain? Is it something you think about often?

3. Why should Christians address what it is the righteous And the wicked will obtain? How is it "helpful"?

4. How was this weeks sermon a message that could help you in sharing the Hope that is found in Jesus?

Digging Deeper

1. A famous quote is, "man's chief end is to love God and enjoy him forever". How does this statement synthesize with this weeks message?

2. Read Genesis 2:4-25. Before we get to the end, let's start at the beginning. We started with a paradise where we lived perfectly with God? Why did Adam and Eve choose to lose that?

3. Read Mark 3:1-5. Why were people hardening their hearts in the midst of this great miracle right in front of their face?

4. In what ways do you sense people in your life hardening their hearts to God even when it is right in front of their face?

5. An old sales concept is that you have to be red hot so that they will be lukewarm when you talk about your product. In the same way, we are often not red hot about the hope we have in Christ when we share it with others. What is a verse or passage in scripture that gets you excited about what you will obtain through the righteousness of Christ?