

Sample Accountability Questions

Regardless of the accountability questions you choose, the last question should be, "Have you been truthful about everything we have discussed?" There will be times when that question is necessary, and true accountability demands it.

- Have you spent time with God on a regular basis?
- Have you compromised your integrity in any way?
- Has your thought life been pure?
- Have you committed any sexual sin, in thought or in deed?
- How much time did you spend in prayer this week?
- Did you pray for others in this group?
- Did you put yourself in an awkward situation with a member of the opposite sex?
- What one sin plagued your walk with God this week?
- Did you accomplish your spiritual goals this week?
- Are you giving to the Lord's work financially?
- How have you demonstrated a servant's heart?
- Do you treat your peers and coworkers as people loved by God?
- What significant thing did you do for your spouse and/or family?
- What was your biggest disappointment? How did you decide to handle it?
- What was your biggest joy? Did you thank God?
- What do you see as your number one need for next week?
- Are you satisfied with the time you spent with the Lord this week?
- Did you take time to show compassion for others in need?
- Did you control your tongue?
- What did you do this week to enhance your relationship with your spouse and/or children?
- Did you pray and read God's word this week? What did you derive from this time?
- In what ways have you stepped out in faith since we met last?
- In what ways has God blessed you this week? And what disappointments consumed your thoughts this week?
- Did you view pornography or other lustful material, or otherwise look inappropriately at a member of the opposite sex?
- How have you been tempted this week? How did you respond?
- How has your relationship with Christ been changing?
- Did you fellowship in church this week?
- Have you shared your faith this week? How?
- What have you done to serve someone else this week?
- Are the "visible" you and the "real" you consistent?